

Why the Industrial Revolution Happened Here

1. What natural resource kick started the industrial revolution in England?
2. How much more efficient and power powerful was Coal compared to wood?
3. The world's first steam engine was used to pump water out of coal mines; it could do the same work as _____ horses.
4. The time of new scientific knowledge was referred to as the "Age of _____"
5. James Watt was determined to make the most efficient Steam _____ ever created.
6. Watt's engine produced the same amount of power as his competitors, but ran off of a _____ of resources/coal.
7. What was the small toy fish used for?
8. How much did Birmingham grow because of the industrial revolution?
9. Great Britain was a Parliamentary Monarchy, Who had the power to create and pass laws?
10. What kind of government did France have? This prevented them developing free thinking in advancements during the Industrial Revolution.
11. England differed from France in the belief in expansion. France believed that if you wanted to expand, you needed to take over by conquest. England believe that wealth could be _____.
12. Where was the one place that could generate all the wealth needed for the Industrial Revolution? West _____
13. What types of goods were taken from North America?
14. What was the terrible cost of the wealth created from the production on the West Indies?
15. During the 18th century, how many slaves were transported across the Atlantic by the British?
16. What economic class started to grow during this time frame in Britain?
17. Wedgwood is considered to be the father of what?
18. Who did Wedgwood direct his advertising towards?
19. Who was responsible for taking care of roads in England?
20. In 70 years, how much did the road system improve? From 300 Miles, to _____
21. What did the French roads connect?
22. How long did it take to build the Harecastle tunnel?
23. How much of the worlds coal was produced in Great Britain _____, how much of the worlds iron was produced in Great Britain? _____